patents should secure their titles by obtaining Pat-

Patents having their duplicates with me for that purpose, will be deposited nothing unless I succeed in obtaining their patents.

POCKET BOOK LOST.—H. D. Stout had his pocket book lost last night in the crowd, of a small pocket book containing about forty dollars in money. The bills were an old Kentucky $10 bill—two or three fives on the Missouri Exchange bank—the balance in Ohio, Kentucky, and Massachusetts $3. Also an acceptance of Wm. F. Conly & Co. for $25, due Oct. 15. Type Foundry and several other papers, railroad passes and bills due the Empire office.
Also, an order on Dr. Furman for $9.

By order of the board,
A. S. BARRETT, Sec. &c.

IF we give, in another place, the returns from wards and townships heard from. We had hoped to give them entire this afternoon. They "tell the story" so far as the result is concerned; but they do not enlighten the reader as to the lying and corruption which produced it.

DAYTON AND MICHIGAN RAILROAD.—The gross earnings of this road for September, its first month, are $25,200, showing an increase, since its completion, of over $10,000.
As yet, there is no mail or express on the Northern Division of the Road. The above results are fully up to the expectations of its managers.

Since the completion of the Road, the Company has been re-organized as follows:
President, Clement Dietrich; Vice President, Andrew Gross; General Superintendent, R.
M. Shoemaker; General Freight and Passenger Agent, M. Shoemaker; Secretary and Treasurer, Preserved Smith; General Traveling Agent, D. C. Henderson. Most of these gentlemen are large owners in the Road, a fact sufficient to insure it an energetic and economical management.

DAYTON BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—Mr. Hawes' Agents are doing a business in taking subscribers and advertisers for the Dayton Directory.
We are glad to see that the Merchants and Business men are waking up to their interest in this thing. The name of Geo. W. Hawes is a guarantee sufficient to induce any one to take a hold of any of his publications.

IF we do not propose to run a list against the awards of the committee on "vehicles" at the recent County Fair, but we must say that we believe the Phaeton buggy which was exhibited on the grounds by John Cohen, Esq., was in all the requisites of fine and good work, not surpassed by any other. In the first place we learn that it was not made expressly for competition at the Fair; but this matters little.
Of course we could not see the quality of the wood work, for it was covered over with the best coat of paint, and varnish we have examined for a long while. The painting was in variegated colors, but in harmony with each other, the ornamenting on the bed was most exquisitely done, and the running gears we never saw equalled. The "stripping"—well, we cannot do that justice. It exceeded any thing we ever before saw. The finishing and trimming, inside and outside, we don't believe can be beaten any where.

Mr. C. also had on exhibition one of the nearest, coolest light carriages we have ever seen. It was not built for exhibition, but was a marvel of elegance and convenience.

IF yesterday an Irishman and Englishman had a quarrel on Market street, about Massachusetts politics; and during the dispute the Englishman affirmed that negroes had more sense than Irishmen! This was answered by a blow, a clench ensued, when the Irishman got his man down and threatened him before bystanders could interfere. The Irishman declared—"An Englishman is with less nor a nigger against me that same, and is not equal to the fourth of a little Irishman!"

THE boys last evening "made light" of a large number of goods boxes, barrels, and other inflammable stuff, but the owners of these things were not disposed to take it so lightly. We learn that several boys were fired upon with salt, and made to smart for their depredations.

WE learn that yesterday evening there were no oysters to be had of any of the dealers in town. Oysters were in demand: This morning Brandenburg & Co. received a supply of the choicest Baltimore Bivalves. They can now supply the hungry.

IF Douglas & Co. will have a grand opening at their Dry Goods Palace, Main st., on to-morrow evening. It will be a fine affair, and will well repay the bright eyes of our fair townswomen.

IF now that the election is over, the voters will begin to see that they want clothes—a matter which they probably did not consider for a week or two past! Chamberlain & Parker, Oleg's Building, 3d st., can accommodate all such with the very best of clothes, at the lowest cash rates; and McVicker will "fix up" all who cannot please themselves with their almost endless variety of ready-made clothing.

IF Heckler, Remely & Maxton, the clever quartermen dealers on 3d st., just east of Main, have been receiving a fresh supply of China and Queensware goods, to fill up the space which had been sold out to the people. They are good men, and fair dealers, and we recommend them to our readers.

Democratic Leaven—Banner Townships.

Despite the flood of money and lies let loose upon the County during the last week, SIX Townships not only remained firm to correct principles, and proof against corruption—but they proved themselves invulnerable. They are the banner townships of Old Montgomery—the stronghold of Democratic principles, the Constitution and the Union. They are the rallying points for the future, from which our hosts will go forth to conquer the fens to the best interests of the white men of this State and the Nation. We look with hope to them, and they have given earnest that we will not be deceived. The following gains will justify all we have said of the Democratic Banner townships of Old Montgomery:

RANDOLPH, gain 14
WAYNE, " 24
JACKSON, " 16
WASHINGTON, " 13
MADISON, " 11
VAN BUREN, " 2

All hail the Banner townships! It is some consolation to know that we have six townships in the County which corruption could not reach!

The Journal and Ourselves.

All that we have at present to say to the "Patron Saint" who presides over the columns of the Journal is this: That the Court of Common Pleas will sit on the first of next month, when we expect that our case will be brought up for settlement. With the verdict of an impartial trial, we will be content. And whatever that verdict may be we will hasten to give it to the public. No attempt will be made by us to evade this, or to "cover up" any thing connected with our public life. We had hoped, now that the election was over, and the Journal had answered its purpose by malicious attacks upon us, would have the ordinary decency to abstain from them; but we were mistaken. It seems to be the object of the Journal to prejudice our case so that it will be impossible for us to have an impartial trial.
We will trust, however, to the good sense and honor of those who will not, we hope, be influenced to prejudice our case by what is so plainly an exhibition of malice so atrocious as to be without a parallel in the County.

IF the election passed off quietly yesterday if we may except a little wrangling in a few poll precincts. In Harrison there was quite a fracas. It commenced between two men, and extended to their immediate friends. Stones were freely used, and two of the combatants were pretty badly injured—all of them were more or less bruised. We are told that the quarrel had nothing to do with politics.

IF the Great Eastern is still at Portland, England, taking in her coal and repainting the damages from the late explosion. As an exhibition her stay there has been a great success, her receipts averaging upwards of $250 per day. The last news Mr. Brunel heard from his last great work was the account of her explosion. It was on Tuesday and he was then on sick bed. From that time he gradually sank until Thursday when he died.

IF we went home last night about 10 o'clock, laboring under the impression that the Democratic ticket in Montgomery was beaten. We had the impression strengthened about 12 midnight, when a party of jubilant Republicans shouted "Hurrah for the Opposition Ticket!" in front of our residence; and we had it confirmed this morning when we came up town, by seeing the figures. It may be set down as a fact that the Opposition ticket was elected yesterday.

IF The Gazette received the following dispatch this P. M.:

Aaron Harlan is elected Representative in Greene County. Democrats' majority is 1106.
Muskingum elected Republican Senator and three Republican Representatives.

Berks County, Penn., is Democratic.

IF we desire one thing distinctly understood—we want no misunderstanding about it.
We are not going up Salt River! We will remain right here, and bear a hand in collecting our forces and put them in condition for another fight at the proper time.

IF See Mrs. Howard's Card—"Opening Every Day."

IF in the political storm which has swept over, we had forgotten to say that Dictrich, Phillips House, has just replenished his excellent Drug Store with a complete stock; and has, also, a great many other extra articles which do not come strictly under the head of drugs or medicines. When we say Dietrich has one of the best drug establishments in the country, we mean it, and know it. So please you call in and see his nice fixtures.

IF The Chief of Police of Louisville has been requested to arrest a man named Wm.
Goodwin, who killed Mr. Sweet in Marshall County, October 4. He is described as having a red head and complexion, is six feet high, quick spoken, weighs one hundred and seventy five pounds, and is about thirty three years of age.

IF We haven't seen a democrat to day who has any idea of going up Salt River; and as there is no law—(excepting that of force, and there is not force enough in the opposition to force it)—to compel them, we rather guess none of them will go. The boats prepared for us can be kept at some dirty work until next fall, when they will be required for the opposition, who will certainly need them.

HUMAN MAGNETISM.—Mrs. Sarah Fuller, at No. 347 Western Row, Cincinnati, in 1847, was living at Mayville Ky. She had been lingering, for some years with pulmonary disease, and was given up by the medical faculty as in the last stages of consumption. Prof. H. F. Smith stopped there to deliver a course of lectures, and was persuaded to give her a trial. At the ninth sitting, he magnetized her fully. From the commencement, she gave up all medicines and continued to improve, and in less than three months was completely cured, and has remained a healthy woman since. A considerable part of the time this cure was being effected, Prof. Smith was some hundreds of miles from Mrs. Fuller, and magnetized her daily at that distance. This is one among many similar cures effected by the magnetic power of Prof.
Smith.

IF the darkies—to the number of 200 or 300—are having a jollification in the Market House this afternoon over the Republican victory of yesterday!

IF Go to the auction sale of China vases, man-te, ornaments, &c., at Christopher's this evening.
Call and see the goods this afternoon.

IF Shelby county is said to have given a large Democratic majority—the whole Democratic county ticket elected.
